Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 18, 2010

The one who does
justice will live
in the presence of the Lord

It is Christ whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching every one with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

DON'T BE ANXIOUS

One can wonder how Luke's Gospel passage today might have been different if Mary, not Martha, had been the one to complain to Jesus, if Mary had said "Lord, look at her! Here You are sharing Your wisdom and all she can think about is supper." Jesus may have noted, as Luke does, that Martha was burdened with much serving. Later in his writings, this same evangelist will describe in Acts how the early community set aside people whose ministry it is to see to the serving at table.

As a fully human person, Jesus knew the human needs that had to be tended. He doesn't deny this, nor does He chastise Martha for her working in service. He chides her for being anxious and worried. How can Martha—or any of us—be anxious or worried about the serving that needs to be done when we do it in the context of the Lord's will and wisdom? The Church has done more than any other institution to bear the heavy burdens of serving the ill, the uneducated, the suffering; has been "Martha" to countless of the little ones whom Christ told us were His very presence. But the Church has borne the burdens of service from the position of Mary: at the feet of the Lord, listening to and being guided by His word.

THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Paragraph 520 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: In all of His life Jesus presents Himself as our model. He is "the Perfect Man," who invites us to become His disciples and follow Him. In humbling Himself, He has given us an example to imitate, through His prayer He draws us to pray and by His poverty He calls us to accept freely the privation and persecutions that may come our way.

A PRAYER FOR JOB SEEKERS

Gracious and loving God, You know our need for meaningful work.

Send Your Holy Spirit to guide those who are searching for employment.

Help them to recognize the gifts and talents You have given them.

Deepen their desire to follow Your will.

Inspire them as they contact potential employers.

Give them patience as they wait for responses.

Shelter them from feelings of rejection.

Protect them from discouragement.

Give them courage to overcome fear.

Shower on them the graces they need to persevere.

Let this time of searching become an opportunity to grow in faith,

To cultivate the virtue of hope, and to experience Your healing love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen
